Here are some ways of advertising your product, some of which you may already know about. Some are free with a chance to upgrade for more features once you are a member. Mammoth List and My Free Safe List (the bottom banner), allow you to earn from those you refer – a bit of MLM in there, however they will all help you with your online advertising.

If you are advertising affiliate products, it is a good idea to set up a squeeze page to capture subscribers to build your list before you send them to the product in question.
